Re: Holman v. Macon County
USDC, No. 2:10-cv-0036

Dear Jerry:

I am writing you regarding your review of documents in this case which were the subject of our discovery dispute hearing before Magistrate Brown. My office has contacted you via email on two prior occasions to attempt to schedule a time for your review of these documents. It is my understanding that you have not responded to either email communication.

The documents are available for your review at my office, and the Court has ordered me to make them available to you before March 30, 2011. Please let me know whether you plan to come to my office this afternoon or tomorrow so that I may have a room available for you. I will be available this afternoon after lunch if you give me a heads up please.

If you have not already done so, please bring your client's responses to outstanding discovery to my office when you come to review the documents. The Court ordered your client to respond to those on or before March 28, and I have not received them in my office at this time.

Sincerely,

Mary Byrd Ferrara by Permission
